

Review Form

A. Journal Scope & Originality

- ☐ Manuscript fits the aims and scope of the journal
- ☐ Topic is relevant to medical sciences
- ☐ Study provides original or novel findings
- ☐ Manuscript has scientific and academic value

B. Title

- ☐ Title is clear and concise
- ☐ Title accurately reflects the study content
- ☐ Title is appropriate for the study design

C. Abstract

- ☐ Abstract is structured appropriately
- ☐ Study objectives are clearly stated
- ☐ Methods are adequately summarised
- ☐ Key results are clearly presented
- ☐ Conclusions are supported by results

D. Keywords

- ☐ Keywords are relevant to the study
- ☐ Keywords are appropriate for indexing

E. Introduction

- ☐ Background information is sufficient
- ☐ Literature review is relevant and up to date
- ☐ Research gap/problem is clearly identified
- ☐ Study objectives or hypotheses are clearly stated

F. Materials and Methods

- ☐ Study design is appropriate
- ☐ Study setting and duration are clearly described
- ☐ Inclusion and exclusion criteria are defined
- ☐ Sample size is adequate and justified
- ☐ Data collection methods are clearly explained
- ☐ Statistical methods are appropriate
- ☐ Software used for analysis is stated
- ☐ Methodology allows reproducibility

G. Ethical Considerations

- ☐ Ethical approval is mentioned
- ☐ Ethical committee name/reference is provided
- ☐ Informed consent is stated (if applicable)
- ☐ Animal/human research guidelines are followed

H. Results

- ☐ Results are clearly and logically presented
- ☐ Results correspond to the stated objectives
- ☐ Tables are clear, properly labeled, and relevant
- ☐ Figures are appropriate and of good quality
- ☐ Data are not duplicated between text and tables

I. Discussion

- ☐ Results are interpreted correctly
- ☐ Findings are compared with previous studies
- ☐ Agreements or discrepancies with literature are discussed
- ☐ Study strengths are addressed
- ☐ Study limitations are acknowledged

J. Conclusion

- ☐ Conclusions are clear and concise
- ☐ Conclusions are supported by results
- ☐ No overgeneralisation or unsupported claims
- ☐ Implications for practice or research are stated

K. References

- ☐ References are relevant and adequate
- ☐ Recent literature is included
- ☐ References are correctly cited in the text
- ☐ Journal reference style is followed

L. Language & Presentation

- ☐ Manuscript is well organised
- ☐ Academic language is clear and understandable
- ☐ Grammar and spelling are acceptable
- ☐ Overall presentation meets publication standards

M. Overall Evaluation

- ☐ Manuscript requires no revision
- ☐ Manuscript requires minor revision
- ☐ Manuscript requires major revision
- ☐ Manuscript is not suitable for publication

N. Reviewer Comments

- ☐ Comments to the Author provided (text box)
- ☐ Confidential comments to the Editor provided (text box)

O. Final Recommendation (Single choice)

- ☐ Accept
- ☐ Minor Revision
- ☐ Major Revision
- ☐ Reject